

Church planting Team in Nogales, Mexico meeting at our church: “Pueblo De Esperanza” – People of Hope – Hope for a people caught in violence and uncertainty. How appropriate!!!!

Just got back from a church planting meeting in Nogales, Mexico. It was exciting to be in a meeting with all these men planning for the ministry. The meeting was conducted 100% in Spanish. We began with each sharing their testimony. I was very touched by one young man’s testimony: Jacinto Ordoñez (center). He will be the church planter on our team. It is special how Jacinto was specifically prepared by the Lord to be on this team.

When Jacinto was a child he did chores for his father for one or two pesos. Later, he found out that if he worked for the drug cartels, he could make much more. He graduated to selling “chicles” which are small packets of diluted drugs and could make 30 pesos per day. This went on for some time leading to his addiction to the very drugs he sold. The Lord reached out to Jacinto resulting in his conversion. After nine months of drug rehabilitation, Jacinto met Dan, one of our BEAMM team members. Jacinto had a desire to plant churches, so Dan encouraged him to enter the BEAMM sponsored Seminary. Later, Jacinto moved to Nogales to plant churches on his own. The BEAMM team encouraged him to join this new church planting movement in Nogales. During our church planting meeting, I was emotionally touched by his testimony. Many children in Mexico are recruited by the drug cartels at a very young age - initially, as lookouts during drug transactions and then onto selling, chicletts. The cartels hope the child will become addicted, become part of the gang, and move up through the ranks. Can you imagine how the Lord can use Jacinto to reach Mexicans for Christ and be able to share with children, youngsters, and families that he was part of this nightmare and now part of a new vision of freedom and victory in Christ. Wahooooooo! He is Lord! We get to work alongside this man on the church planting team as Mercy Ministry/Community Development Coordinators. The harvest is white, pray that God will send us to the fields soon! Please pray about your part with us in this harvest field.
